FOR IMMEDIATE RELEASE – May 5, 2009

Rachel Becker to retire from Bank First National

Bank First National announces that long time employee Rachel Becker will retire on May 29, 2009. Becker will leave her post as Assistant Vice President at the Bank's New Holstein office located at 2210 Calumet Drive. The Bank will host an open house on Thursday, May 28, and Friday, May 29, in honor of Rachel's years of service and to wish Rachel well in her retirement. The public is welcome to stop by for refreshments during regular business hours.

During Becker's 43 year banking career she held various positions, including bookkeeper, teller, secretary to the board of directors, cashier, auditor, and assistant vice president/branch manager.

Becker, a native of the Kiel area, and her husband, Gary, have resided in Elkhart Lake area since 1972. She is currently a member of the New Holstein Kiwanis Club, is Treasurer/Director of the New Holstein Chamber of Commerce, and is a member of the Kiel VFW Auxiliary.
