FOR IMMEDIATE RELEASE – January 26, 2011

Bank First National to open office in downtown Oshkosh

Bank First National is pleased to announce the opening of our Fox Valley office on Tuesday, February 1, 2011. The new office is located at 101 City Center, in downtown Oshkosh, WI.

The location occupies 3,200 sq. ft. of newly-renovated office area offering a complete compliment of business and personal banking capabilities and services.

“We are very proud to bring the Bank First National experience to one of the most vital markets in Wisconsin,” stated Michael Dempsey, Executive Vice President and Chief Operating Officer. “We are truly a relationship-focused organization built around exceptional talent who are committed to delivering the very best in financial solutions at every opportunity.”

Regional President, Joan Woldt, brings more than 20 years of Fox Valley community banking experience to Bank First National. Joan is leading a team of professionals who are well known and highly regarded within the market. The talented group also includes Mei Bloechl, Vice President Private Banking; Meghann Kasper, Vice President Business Banking; and Carol Franz, Deposit Services. Together this group has more than 100 years of experience serving Oshkosh and the surrounding Fox Valley areas.

“Establishing the Oshkosh office is part of our strategy to continue expanding Bank First National’s presence throughout the Fox Valley area,” said Michael Molepske, CEO/President of Bank First National. “Woldt and her team are well versed in addressing the needs of individuals, organizations and businesses. They are a committed group who are actively and genuinely involved in advancing the community in a number of leadership roles.”

Customers and the general public may visit Bank First National’s new location from 8:30 a.m. to 5:00 p.m. Monday through Friday beginning Tuesday, February 1. For more information about the Oshkosh office please call (920) 237-5126.
