Joel Roeser joins Bank First National

First Manitowoc Bancorp, Inc. (OTCBB: FMWC.OB) – Michael Molepske, Chief Executive Officer and President of Bank First National, recently announced the addition of Joel Roeser as Vice President of Business Banking. Roeser is responsible for helping grow the business banking function in the Bank’s northern region market.

Roeser brings over 26 years of banking experience to his new position. Prior to joining Bank First National, Roeser was employed at Citizens Bank, Associated Bank and Harbor Credit Union. He received a bachelor’s of science degree in business administration from the University of Wisconsin-Green Bay.

Roeser is involved in the American Heart Association, Salvation Army, and is a 2003 graduate of Leadership Green Bay. He resides in the DePere with his wife and daughter.

First Manitowoc Bancorp, Inc. provides financial services through its sole subsidiary, Bank First National, a national banking association incorporated in 1894. The Bank is an independent community bank with 13 banking locations in Manitowoc, Brown, and Sheboygan and Winnebago counties. The Bank has grown through both acquisitions and de novo branch expansion. The Bank offers loan, deposit, investment advisory and trust products at each of its banking offices. Insurance products are available through Ansay & Associates, LLC. Trust, investment advisory and other financial services are offered through the Bank First National’s Wealth Management Group. The Bank is a co-owner of a data processing subsidiary, United Financial Services, Inc., which provides data services to nearly 50 Wisconsin banks. The Bank employs approximately 171 full time equivalent staff and has assets of $826 million as of December 31, 2010. Further information about First Manitowoc Bancorp, Inc. and Bank First National is available at www.BankFirstNational.com.
