FOR IMMEDIATE RELEASE – September 5, 2014

Bank First welcomes Aaron Faulkner to their Green Bay team

Bank First (BFNC) is pleased to announce that Aaron Faulkner has joined their team as Vice President of Business Banking. With nine years of banking experience, Faulkner previously held positions of senior relationship manager / business banking, mortgage lender, and senior credit manager with a national financial institution.

He earned a bachelor of arts in business degree from St. Norbert College and a master of business administration degree, with an emphasis in finance, from Lakeland College. Faulkner currently serves as President of BNI Tundra Networking and serves on the alumni board at St. Norbert College. Dedicated to volunteering, Faulkner is a Younglife volunteer, Eagles Aloft board member, Habitat For Humanity selection committee member, and Spring Lake church leadership and development team member. Faulkner resides in Green Bay with his wife, Heather, and their three children. In his spare time, he enjoys basketball, physical fitness and competitive events.

At Bank First, Faulkner will be located at 2747 Manitowoc Road in Bellevue. For more information, please visit www.BankFirstNational.com.
