Bank First welcomes Dustin Gresen to its team

MANITOWOC, WI - July 7, 2017 - Mike Molepske, Chief Executive Officer of Bank First (BFNC), is pleased to announce the addition of Dustin Gresen as Vice President of Business Banking. Prior to his tenure with Bank First, Gresen was employed at Wells Fargo where he served as Vice President - Commercial Relationship Manager. In his new role, Dustin will be responsible for developing new and enhancing current business banking relationships.

DUSTIN GRESEN

“We are delighted to welcome Dustin to the Bank First team. His knowledge and experience in community banking will complement our team of talented bankers,” stated Mike Molepske, Chief Executive Officer at Bank First. “The Ashwaubenon team is well-positioned for continued growth and success under Dustin’s leadership.”

Gresen earned his Bachelor of Business Administration from St. Norbert College. Dedicated to our community’s youth, Gresen volunteers his time as Defensive Coordinator for the Green Bay Preble High School varsity football team. In his spare time, he enjoys hunting, fishing, and being outdoors. Gresen resides in Ashwaubenon with his wife, Erin, and their daughter.
