“We are pleased to welcome Jody to the Bank First team,” stated Molepske. “His knowledge and experience in community banking, as well as his thorough understanding of government guaranteed loan programs, will greatly benefit area businesses and complement our talented team of bankers.”

Dedicated to serving his community, Jansen serves on the Board of Directors for the Waushara County Economic Development Corporation as well as CAP Services. He is also a member of the Wisconsin DNR Small Business Environmental Council and serves as a trustee for the Village of Wild Rose. Jody has served on numerous boards throughout his career in the capacities of member, president, and chairperson. Jansen resides in Wild Rose with his wife and three children.

Bank First National Corporation (BFNC) provides financial services through its subsidiary, Bank First National, which was incorporated in 1894. The Bank is an independent community bank with 18 banking locations throughout the State of Wisconsin. The Bank has grown through both acquisitions and de novo branch expansion. The Bank offers loan, deposit and treasury management products at each of its banking offices. Insurance services are available through our bond with Ansay & Associates, LLC. Trust, investment advisory and other financial services are offered through the Bank’s partnership with Legacy Private Trust, an alliance with Morgan Stanley and an affiliation with McKenzie Financial Services, LLC. The Bank is a co-member of a data processing subsidiary, UFS, LLC, which provides data services for over 50 Midwest banks. The Company employs approximately 175 full-time equivalent staff and has assets of $1.33 billion as of September 30, 2017.
